I am writing to provide additional information regarding my visa application. I have made significant preparations for my upcoming trip to the UK, including reserving my flight and hotel accommodations. I would like to clarify that while I have not purchased tickets for specific attractions or events, I have thoroughly planned my itinerary to explore various free landmarks and cultural sites in London and Edinburgh. In addition, I receive a quarterly bonus of approximately £1200, which is provided to me tax-free. Furthermore, I receive an annual medical aid benefit of around £1700. Unfortunately, as this bonus is supplemental income and not reflected in formal documentation, I am unable to provide specific proof. I believe this trip will not only be a valuable cultural experience but also an opportunity to contribute positively to the local economy through my tourism activities. Thank you for considering my application.
